

Wound Care Symposium

December 2, 2016

SEAHEC | 2511 Delaney Ave. | Wilmington, NC 28403

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Wound care is constantly evolving and clinicians must stay abreast of the advances in practice. Attend this conference for the latest information and ensure your practice is up-to-date. Improve your skills in accurately describing skin injuries with different etiologies. Learn to organize your topical therapy according to the principles of wound healing and then apply the latest information about wound care products to specific wounds. Increase your understanding of the management of infection. Join us for this fast paced, information-filled day!

TARGET AUDIENCE:

RNs, LPNs, Nurse Practitioners, Physical Therapists, Physical Therapy Assistants, and other interested health care professionals in all settings including acute, ambulatory, home health, hospice, long-term, rehabilitation, and transitional care.

OBJECTIVES:

At the conclusion of this educational activity, participants should be able to:

- ◆ Discuss how clinical practice guidelines inform wound care practice.
- ◆ Identify the six stages used in the classification of pressure injury.
- ◆ Describe skin injuries with etiology other than pressure.
- ◆ Compare properties of various topical products used in wound therapy.
- ◆ Identify appropriate antimicrobial dressing options.
- ◆ Recall key concepts regarding wound care practice.
